

CONASIS NEWS – Winter Edition 2009 / 2010

Scholarship News

Recently, Justine Oden of Plainville was awarded the 2009 CONASIS Andrew J. Parr Memorial Scholarship. The award was made at the Annual CONASIS Law Enforcement Night held in Farmington. Justine, a criminal justice major at Central Connecticut State University received $500 from the Chapter which was matched with another $500 by the ASIS Foundation.

Since the meeting; Mr. Robert E. Johnson, ASIS International Region 18 Vice President made his decision on the Regional Award from those submitted in the region. Once again, Justine was selected and awarded yet another $500; making her total award $1,500.00. Congratulations to Justine on her additional accomplishment which reflects well on CONASIS.

The 2010 scholarship award competition will begin after the summer. Members are encouraged to look out for viable candidates in the field of criminal justice/security management; as well as consider applying for the Practitioner Award; a continuing education award to one of our members. Further information can be received by contacting the Scholarship/ASIS Foundation Chairman; Michael Wanik, CPP at mwanik@sscintel.com.
